"Existence is indestructible. Whatever ceases to exist in our eyes merely sheds one form and assumes another."

Rabbi Yichiel Tucazinsky

We are guardians of the souls of those who have departed from this world. We remember our loved ones in all of the reality of their lives; we remember their joy, we remember their heartbreak. Relationships that were a part of life in this world continue to grow as their voices yet guide us with counsel and wisdom.

At Yizkor we pray that our dear ones may rest in peace. As always, we are so aware of how deeply we miss them.

This service occurs before the gates of Neilah descend and the final sounding of the shofar is heard. We could not go forward into the New Year without trusting in the eternity of the soul. The knowledge that the soul does endure enables us to discover a true unity with the Source of all life and goodness. The past flows through us and becomes sanctified in the New Year as we, through memory and the goodness of our deeds, bring honor to our beloved departed.

Yom Kippur

Let the glory of God be extolled, let God's great name be hallowed in the world whose creation God willed. May God's kingdom soon prevail, in our own day, our own lives, and the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen.

Let God's great name be blessed for ever and ever. Let the name of the Holy One, blessed is God, be glorified, exalted, and honored, though God is beyond all the praises, songs and adorations that we can utter, and let us say: Amen.

For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true and let us say: Amen.

May the One who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, let peace descend on us, on all Israel, and all the world, and let us say: Amen.

May the Source of peace send peace to all who mourn, and comfort to all who are bereaved. Amen.

For A Yahrzeit

The Family is gathered at dusk, on the eve of the anniversary of the death.

At this moment, which bears the memory of our beloved _____ let us join hands in love and remembrance. A link has been broken in the chain which has bound us together, yet strong bonds of home and love hold us each to the other.

We give thanks for the blessing of life, of companionship, and of memory. We are grateful for the strength and faith that sustained us in the hour of our bereavement. Though sorrow lingers, we have learned that love is stronger than death. Though our loved one is beyond our sight, we do not despair, for we sense our beloved in our hearts as a living presence.

It is customary for the family to attend the Sabbath Evening Worship Service following the anniversary of the death during which the name of the departed is remembered in the Kaddish prayer.

Psalm 23

*God is my shepherd, I shall not want.
God makes me lie down in green pastures,
Leads me beside still waters and restores my soul.
You lead me in right paths for the sake of Your name.
Even when I walk in the valley of the shadow of death
I shall fear no evil, for You are with me.
You have set a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You have anointed my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of God forever.*

Sustained by words of faith, comforted by precious memories, we kindle the Yahrzeit light in remembrance. “The human spirit is the light of the Lord.” As this light burns pure and clear, so may the blessed memory of the goodness and nobility of character of our dear _____ illumine our souls.

The light is kindled.

His/her memory is a blessing.
